Student Code of Conduct

Since participation in athletics, drama, choir, band, Student Body Offices, and class/club events (field trips) is entirely on a voluntary basis, the student participates with the understanding that established rules will be strictly enforced. Duration- these rules hold true for all participants for the entire time a student is a member of the above-mentioned events, programs, or organizations. For athletics, the season starts with the first allowable practice as defined by the Central Coast Section CIF and ends with the team's presentation awards. All Scotts Valley Unified School District students are expected to:

- Abide by all the district's policies related to discipline.
 - Refrain from the use of tobacco (smoking, chewing, or snuff), alcohol, or illegal drugs (including steroids or performance enhancing drugs) on or off campus.
 - Establish regular and prompt attendance at all practices and games, except in the case of illness or when the coach excuses the student.
 - Finish the season in good standing in order to be eligible for an award.
 - Debts owed to School: A student will not be allowed to participate in a sport/group unless they have cleared all debts with the office. Be responsible for athletic or school equipment issued and, if lost, to pay for equipment before being eligible to compete in another sport.
 - Follow any rules established by the coach, teacher, or director of the program.
 - Represent the school, family, and the community through good citizenship and conduct at all times. This includes:
 - Displaying cordial conduct to visiting team members at all times;
 - Displaying good sportsmanship;
 - Respecting the integrity and judgment of athletic officials and avoiding derisive action or words, towards them;
